The Church Year Diary 2025-26 has used the Three-Year Lectionary from Lutheran Service Book (2006). Published by Concordia Publishing House, Saint Louis. For the 2025-26 Church Year, the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod (LCMS) uses the Three-Year Lectionary Series A (<https://www.lcms.org/worship/church-year>).

The India Evangelical Lutheran Church (IELC) too uses the Three-Year Lectionary. For the Church Year 2025-26 we follow series A and the Sermon Text is Gospel.

The Pastors' Phone Book is compiled with the help of all three Synod Presidents and office staff. The Pastors' Phone Book is published with the hope that pastors and congregations would mutually benefit.

From the Principal

Dear Co-Workers in the Vineyard of Christ!

Cordial greetings from Concordia Theological Seminary.

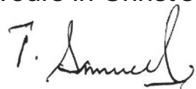

God's Word is eternal, unchanging, and reliable. It's the Word of God that creates and sustains the universe; it is powerful and always has its purpose fulfilled. In this temporary world, we live with uncertainties, including our personal, emotional, spiritual, socio-economic, and political brokenness. The promises of God's word are a source of our strength and comfort. It consoles the disturbed and disturbs the comforted through its eternal truth. When we read or hear the Word of God, we encounter the living Word, Jesus Christ, the embodiment of God's eternal truth. To Luther, the Word of God was a living, active power that revealed Christ, offered comfort, and transformed the believer. He saw the Word as a dynamic force that points to Jesus and emphasised that the scriptures condemn our sins and lead us to the grace of God that is freely available in Christ Jesus through the power of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, to proclaim the Word of God systematically, confessionally, and empathetically in the congregations of the India Evangelical Lutheran Church, we with great joy publish this Church Year Diary 2025-2026 to the glory of God and for the use of the church.

I am grateful to Rev. Dr. John Vijaya Raj R. for editing, designing, and compiling the diary. I am also profoundly grateful to the family members of Rev. M. Philip (the First Indian Professor of Concordia Theological Seminary, Nagercoil) and Rev. P. Norbert (the Former General Treasurer, IELC) who generously supported us in publishing this year Church Year Diary.

The three-year lectionary series of the Lutheran Service Book (2006) is used for the Church Year Diary 2025–2026. This Church year we follow series A and the Gospel reading as the Sermon Text.

May the Word of God endure forever.

Yours in Christ's Service

Rev. Dr. T. Samuel
Principal

*Our preaching does not stop with the law.
That would lead to wounding without binding up,
striking down and not healing,
killing and not making alive,
driving down to hell and not bringing back up,
humbling and not exalting.
Therefore,
we must also preach grace
and the promise of forgiveness
- this is the means by which faith is awakened and properly taught.
Without this word of grace,
the law, contrition, penitence,
and everything else are done and taught in vain.*

Martinus Luth.

Luther's Work: Word and Sacrament, vol. 35, p. 362.

*“Preach the word; be ready in season and out of season;
reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching.”*
